THE STATE CONVENTIONS.

GREAT INTEREST MANIFESTED AT INDIANAPOLIS.

Mason and Myers Likely to Head the Ticket—Massachusetts and Pennsylvania Preparing to Elect Delegates to the National Convention.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 26.—Great interest is centering here over the Democratic state convention.

Mason seems to have the advantage over Myers for governor. Probabilities seem to point to Mason and Myers as the ticket, though the latter's friends say he cannot accept the lieutenant governorship.

The machinery is in the hands of Mason's friends, and the convention will be controlled in his and Gray's interests. Niblack and Cobb will receive complimentary votes for governor. Muson and Dougherty for auditor are abreast. There has been a stampede for Green Smith for attorney general, the Marion county delegates deserting Wilson for Smith, and the latter's friends are storming about the hotels triumphantly.

The better elements deplore this, recognizing that Smith's nomination means a defensive campaign. McDonald's denunciation of Gray's vice presidential aspirations has not changed the determination of the delegates to endorse Gray. The latter refuses to talk except to say that he had nothing whatever to do with the defeat of McDonald as a delegate.

In the Old Bay State.

BOSTON, April 26.—The Republican state convention to elect delegates to the National convention assembled at Tremont Temple at 11 o'clock. Prior to the convention there was considerable canvassing at the Tremont house and also in the corridors at Tremont Temple.

At 11:30 there was a large gathering in the convention hall, and several different tickets were distributed.

The convention was very well attended. The convention was called to order by Dr. Burden, chairman of the state committee, and temporary organization was effected, with Robert J. Southworth and J. Otis Wardwell as secretaries. Prayer was offered by Rev. H. A. Philbrook, and Dr. Burden then delivered the opening address.

The committee on permanent organization reported for president of the convention Gen. William Cogswell, of Salem. On taking the chair Gen. Cogswell congratulated the delegates on the perfect harmony existing in the party. He reviewed the record of the Cleveland administration, which, he declared, was characterized by "ignorance and incapacity," its distinguishing feature "a total lack of Americanism."

He strongly denounced the president's message and the whole cause of the Democratic party upon the tariff.

LATER—Messrs. George F. Hoar, of Worcester; F. L. Burden, of Attleboro; Henry S. Hyde, of Springfield, and Alonson W. Beard, of Boston, were elected delegates.

Pennsylvania Republicans.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 26.—The Republican state convention which was called to order at the opera house at 11 o'clock will place in nomination a candidate for supreme judge, two candidates for presidential electors, two candidates for presidential electors to be named by candidates from the congressional districts where districts have not previously named them. Four delegates and four alternates-at-large will also be selected. All the old wheel horses of the party are here, and in size and influence the gathering will compare favorably with any assemblage of Republicans in the state for many years past.

The convention is the largest held here for years, and the opera house is overcrowded. The convention was called to order by Chairman Cooper, of the state committee. Samuel H. Miller, of Mercer county, was elected temporary chairman. Upon taking the chair he made a rousing speech, which was greatly cheered.

The names of Isaac G. Gordon, the present chief justice, Wilbur F. Sadler, of Cumberland, and E. L. Stowe, of Allegheny, were also placed in nomination, after which balloting commenced.

MURDER AT NELSONVILLE, OHIO.

An Assistant Marshal Shot By a Rough. The Murderer Suicides.

NELSONVILLE, O., April 26.—This community was greatly startled Tuesday evening about 10 o'clock. While Edward H. Davis, assistant marshal of the city, was standing on the Dew house corner, he was approached by a young man named Samuel Dew, and, without the slightest provocation whatever, was shot twice and instantly killed, either shot being sufficient to cause death.

Young Dew, after shooting Davis, walked one square, and, while in front of Stewart's opera house, put a revolver to his own head, and sent a bullet crashing through his brain, falling dead on the spot.

Davis was a married man, aged about thirty, sober and industrious and much esteemed by the entire community, leaves a young wife and three children, and was appointed on the police force about thirty days ago. Young Dew is but twenty years of age, was addicted to strong drink and has figured prominently in various fights for several years past. He was also married and leaves a wife and one child.

It appears that Davis arrested Dew recently for fast driving, which seems to have led to the tragedy. Reports are conflicting as to how Dew approached Davis, and whether or not Dew said anything to him. It occurred so quickly that no one in the immediate vicinity was aware of it. It is the sole topic of conversation here, and the people are greatly agitated over the terrible affair.

Hent on Revenge.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 26.—Hardy Posey, colored, was lynched at Bessemer, Ala., Monday night for attempted rape. Early Tuesday morning excited negroes entered that town for the purpose of burning it. The sheriff telegraphed here for one hundred men, who have started for the scene of trouble.

Where It Will Do the Most Good.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 26.—As a result of recent raids the state officers yesterday poured out upon the ground 100 hogheads of ale, lager beer, wines and whiskey.

AT THE CAPITAL.

Senator Voorhees Made a Tariff Speech. Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—At the conclusion of morning business Senator Voorhees secured the floor for a tariff speech. After endorsing the president's tariff message he took up the war issues which have played so prominent part in senate debates of late. He defended the president's record in reference to pension bills and others, showing his attitude toward the Union soldier. The attempts to place the Democratic party in an attitude of unfriendliness toward the soldier was without justification, and must be without success. It was only surpassed in mendacity by the attempt to stigmatize the entire party as disloyal, and its eminent Union generals as allies of the Confederacy.

In reply to Senator Ingalls he condemned in the most severe terms the attack on Gen. Hancock and McClellan, men whose love of their country had been proved by their brilliant records.

Mr. Voorhees then turned to the subject of Republican misrule in the south, and replied to various charges made by Senator Sherman. He argued in favor of the adoption of the president's recommendations and Democratic principles as the means of securing the prosperity of the north and south alike.

He condemned in strongest terms the partisan device of reopening war issues and reviving old passions for political purposes, and stigmatized as scavengers and ghouls the men who attacked the memory of those heroes of the Democratic party, who had defended the Union in the war of the rebellion.

For Railroad Officials and Shippers.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The senate interstate commerce committee has agreed upon amendments to the interstate commerce act imposing penalties of a fine not exceeding $5,000 and imprisonment not exceeding two years, upon railroad officials or shippers implicated in false representations as to the quantities or character of goods shipped, or in endeavoring by bribery or otherwise to secure discrimination in rates.

Limited to Seventeen Days.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The house ways and means committee has agreed to limit the general tariff debate to seventeen days and two evening sessions weekly, and to an equal division of the time between Democratic and Republican speakers.

For the Cincinnati Centennial.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The bill to give a display costing $150,250 at the Cincinnati centennial has been introduced. It is sure to pass.

THE FIRE RECORD.

An Exciting Fire in a New York Boarding House—Other Fires.

NEW YORK, April 26.—A fire in the boarding house of Irma Indorf, No. 48 West Twenty-eighth street, shortly after 5 o'clock this morning, almost resulted in a holocaust. As it was, four persons were severely, if not fatally, burned.

Hattie Strings, a colored servant, aged thirty-seven, was terribly burned about the body. She was standing on the sill of the second story window enveloped in flames, and only saved herself from being burned to death by jumping into a life-saving net. She was taken to the New York hospital, and little hopes are entertained of her recovery.

Fannie Tapley, aged forty-five, a white woman, crawled out of a third story window and making her way from sill to sill, by clinging to the shutters, succeeded in reaching a window of the adjoining house. Her clothing was all ablaze and she was badly burned.

Winnie Lewis, aged nineteen, white, performed a like feat, and was likewise badly burned.

Francis Russell, aged twenty-one years, was pinned in on the second floor and made his escape to No. 45 by crawling along from sill to sill. He was also severely burned.

Several others escaped by jumping into the fire net.

The fire originated in the basement, but how, no one knows. It spread rapidly and soon cut off all escape by the stairs. The prompt arrival of the firemen and spreading of the net no doubt saved many from being burned to death. The fire was confined to the building in which it originated. The total loss is placed at $4,000.

A Massachusetts Forest Fire.

PLYMOUTH, Mass., April 26.—An extensive forest fire started yesterday afternoon in the vicinity of the North Triangle pond, and swept over a large tract of pine and oak woodland. A number of men from this valley are fighting the flames.

High School Building Burned.

CONCORD, N. H., April 26.—The high school building was burned this afternoon. All the children were got out in safety.

MEXICAN AND YAQUI.

A Battle Near Agua Verde—The Indians Defeated With a Heavy Loss.

NOGALES, Ariz., April 26.—The Yaqui Indians are now at war with the Mexican Federal forces. They are fortifying several places and making a determined stand against the troops. A few days ago Maj. Enciso and Lieut. Valtreal, with two columns of Federal troops, attacked the Indians in a strongly fortified position in the Zamaquaca mountains, near the town of Agua Verde. A desperate fight ensued, but the Federals, after a number of charges, routed the Indians from the fortifications, killing seventeen and wounding a large number. The Federal forces had one man killed and several wounded.

It had been expected by the government that the approach of warm weather would cause a cessation of hostilities on the part of the Yaquis, but they seem more determined on vigorous warfare than ever before. Military officers, who have been fighting them for several months, believe the Indians are being aided in provisions and ammunition by the Mexicans, who are more favorable to them than to the government.

The South Waking Up.

HOT SPRINGS, N. C., April 26.—A preliminary meeting was held here last night to formulate a plan of organization for the immigration convention. A resolution was passed to the effect that each city in the south with over 5,000 inhabitants shall contribute $1,000 toward establishing a bureau of immigration in New York city.

COSTLY FOR BOTH SIDES.

THE BREWERS' STRIKE IN THE QUEEN CITY OF THE WEST.

The Strikers Losing Nearly $12,000 a Week—Labor Organizations Stand by the Strikers—Shoemakers Expelled by the Knights—The Steelworkers' Notes.

CINCINNATI, April 26.—At the meeting of the boss brewers at the Johnson building Tuesday, nothing of importance was transacted. A committee reported to visit the Reading brewery reported that not a union man was working there. The capacity was reported to be but 3,600 barrels a year, with 1,000 barrels in the cellar.

"That wouldn't be enough to supply our tap room," said Charles Moerlein.

"Last year 4,500 barrels were disposed of by our own employees."

No action pertaining to the Sunday closing law was taken.

The meeting adjourned indefinitely, subject to the call of the executive committee.

Thirteen who had returned to work were reinstated by the union. Resolutions were adopted condemning the action of the Windisch-Muhlhauser firm for refusing the old employees admittance to the brewery Monday to secure their working clothes, and instructing several non-union employees to dump their garments on the pavement, which was done.

A letter was received from the Cleveland Central Labor union, asking which of the Cincinnati breweries should be boycotted. An answer instructing the union to let all Cincinnati beer alone was sent back.

The William Allen Assembly of Freight-handlers have passed resolutions of sympathy for the striking brewers, extending moral and financial support.

Mr. Goetz, of Moerlein's brewery, stated that 150 brewers had been brought to the city, owing to the strike, and that these, with 500 local brewers who had been refused membership into the brewers' union or refused to join, were now at work in the strikers' places.

There are fully 650 strikers out of work who averaged $18 a week. They are now sustaining a loss of nearly $72,000 a week. The cost to the boss brewers in bringing 200 imported workmen here is estimated at $5,000 besides their wages. The strike is costly for both sides.

It was reported this morning that six car loads of Moerlein's beer had been shipped back from the south.

The brewers are opposed to the Sunday closing law. They think the saloons should be closed, however, until 1 o'clock, giving people a chance to attend church services in the morning.

The penalty for drinking non-union beer, as fixed by the cigar-makers, is six months' suspension from the knights. The anti-pool beer movement is becoming popular with labor organizations.

The efforts on the part of the brewers' union to bring non-pool beer to this city are meeting with success. Workmen's hall has a contract with the Reading brewery for fifty kegs a day. Beer has also been secured from breweries outside of the Master Brewers' association at Columbus, Zanesville and Lawrenceburg, Ind.

Labor organizations continue to express sympathy for the striking brewers.

A benefit entertainment and ball will be given by the strikers at workmen's hall. Vocal music will be furnished by the Gann-brine mænchor and other German vocal societies. Two thousand tickets were sold Tuesday.

Expelled From the Knights.

CINCINNATI, April 26.—Ten shoemakers have been expelled from the Knights of Labor, four girls and six men.

Miss Mollie Weiler, first directress of the Hannah Powderly assembly, and the secretary and treasurer, are among the number.

None of the six men expelled were prominent in the recent strike. Their names at least never appeared in the papers.

Miss Mollie Weiler stated in an evening paper that she had not been officially notified of her expulsion.

"I have learned from certain members of assemblies in good standing that such is the case, however," said she. "About two weeks ago I received a communication from the reorganized Hannah Powderly assembly, notifying me to appear before the local court to answer to the charge of insubordination and refusal to turn over the books of the assembly. There was no real attached to the order, and I therefore ignored it."

"Furthermore we claim to be members of National District No. 216, according to the laws of the Knights of Labor. The board of arbitration has not yet decided where we belong, and pending that decision why should we recognize the authority of District No. 48?"

Braddock's Defeat—of the K. of L.

PITTSBURGH, April 26.—The situation at Braddock continues encouraging to the Edgar Thomson Steel company. Fully two hundred more men, including a number of Knights of Labor, applied for work this morning, but were not given employment, as the company is not ready to increase the force of workmen. Superintendent Jones informed the applicants that as soon as the repairs about the mill had been completed they would be put to work. The 700 men who resumed on Monday were engaged in getting the different departments in shape for a general resumption. Everything is quiet and no trouble is anticipated.

The Albany Brewers.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The Herald's Albany special says: All difficulties between the lager beer brewers and their men have been settled. The brewers have signed the required agreement, although the proposed scale of wages is considerably higher than that over which the ale brewers and their men are contending.

Both Claim the Upper Hand.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The brewers' lock-out and the men's boycott show little signs of weakening. Each side in the fight claims to have the upper hand. A report was in circulation among the men to-day that about twenty small brewers were about to yield and abandon the pool.

CHICAGO, April 26.—A News special from Carrollton, O., says: Munday evening Charles Butler, son of a prominent merchant, insulted Jennie Fisher, an estimable young lady, in the presence of a crowd by whistling an offensive air, and calling her "Birdie." Miss Fisher drew from her sleeve a cowhide, and whipped the young man severely about the head and shoulders for several minutes. The crowd cheered her heartily. Butler had insulted Miss Fisher before, and she had warned him to desist.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

THURSDAY EVE., APRIL 26, 1888.

SHERIFF KENDALL, of Fleming County, has announced himself as a candidate for re-election.

THE Fleming True Blue Democrat says the Prohibitionists in Flemingsburg in the liquor fight spent $3,000 last August.

THE Republicans of Johnson County have instructed for W. H. Cox, of this city, for district delegate to Chicago convention.

THE Republicans of Fleming have endorsed W. O. Bradley for Vice President and declared in favor of Senator Sherman for President. Bradley could furnish the wind for such a ticket.

THE capitalists who invested in the coal and timber lands of the "mountain counties" of Kentucky a few years ago have not lost anything on the deal. On the contrary the value of their purchase is a daily increasing.

FLEMING Republicans instructed for W. A. Warford for district delegate and Hon. George M. Thomas for delegate-at-large to the Chicago convention. Their county convention was like the one here in Mason—slimly attended.

CONGRESSMAN SCOTT, of Pennsylvania, picks out Ex-Senator Thurman, of Ohio, for Vice President on the ticket with Cleveland. While there is no doubt as to the winning qualities of such a ticket, yet the noble old Roman will hardly be induced to enter politics at his time of life. Either Gray, of Indiana, or Black, of Illinois, will, it seems, be Cleveland's running mate.

THE news comes from New York that Governor Hill will head the delegation from that State to the St. Louis convention and that it will be for Cleveland. Of course no one has ever doubted of late that Cleveland would be re-nominated, but this news is especially gratifying for the reason that it shows the New York Democracy is solid for the present occupant of the White House, and a united Democracy in New York means a grand victory next November.

Decorate Your City.

The citizens of Maysville are urgently requested to give special attention to the decoration of their houses, both business and dwelling, preparatory for the convocation of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of Kentucky on the 9th and 10th of May next. The occasion will be one of more than ordinary interest, attracting a large concourse of people from different sections of the country, besides the visiting Sir Knights. It is therefore desirable that our citizens shall, and they doubtless will, contribute in every way to give as brilliant an appearance as possible in honor of our guests. Emblematic decorations especially adapted to the occasion can be obtained from our local dealers, such as the national colors, Chinese lanterns, evergreens and whatever may please the taste of persons decorating their own buildings.

H. C. BARKLEY,
Chairman of Committee.

DICK TATE'S SHORTAGE.

Report of the Commissioners Who Examined the State Treasury.

The report of Commissioners Hager and Weaver, who have been investigating the condition of the State Treasury under appointment from the Governor, has been made. It is a lengthy document and covers every detail of their laborious task. The total amount of the shortage is placed at $229,009.21. The I. O. U.'s about which so much has been said, show that in all $59,782.80 is due from various persons, whose names are all given. Referring to the matter, the Courier-Journal says:

"The much-talked about I O U's are fully spread before the public, and while they show that a vicious, wholly incensurable system—or the lack of system—prevailed in the State Treasury, they do not show that corruption existed there, nor do they, in any manner, account for the defalcation. As a matter of fact, these papers are, in many cases, evidences of a seeming indebtedness only, a fact which will be clearly shown when they are examined in the light that can only be thrown upon them from the warrant books in the Auditor's office. They are evidences of a slipshod method of conducting the public business, and many of them are valueless, save as they may serve as awful examples for present and future State officers, warning that there can be no safety outside the straight and narrow path of official and personal rectitude."

The amount which Tate's bondsmen will be called upon to pay will, it is estimated, be about $150,000.

CUBA OVERRUN WITH BANDITS.

They are so Numerous an Army is Necessary to Exterminate Them.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The Herald's Jacksonville, Fla., special says: The five provinces declared in a state of siege in Cuba contain over one hundred cities, towns and villages.

A prominent gentleman who arrived from Cuba lately, said: "The government, headed by Marin, wants to make it appear that the bandits who have taken possession of Cuba are committing their crimes in connection with the leaders of the late insurrection with the view of giving Cuba her liberty. Such, however, is not the case. There is no politics in this matter. The whole truth is that the bandits have got so fierce and powerful in Cuba that the government will require 20,000 men to exterminate them."

"In the third article of the proclamation of Marin he says that any person or persons found to be connected in any way with the bandits or to have given food or shelter to any of their gang, shall be immediately tried by military law and immediately executed."

"As the government, by the issue of this proclamation, gives extraordinary authority to the 'guardia civil,' the principal troops now used by the government, grave fears are entertained in Havana that these troops will try to repeat what they did in Porto Rico recently, where Mr. Madal, an American citizen, was one of the victims. The American residents of Cuba are very apt to suffer the consequences of this siege, and are exposed to be murdered in cold blood at any moment, owing to the state of affairs on the island."

A Florist Gives Warning.

A Boston gardener says that the custom of carrying a flower in the mouth, which has come into vogue among the ladies of some cities, should be discontinued. He says that Dalmatian powder and Paris green are often sprinkled over hot house plants to keep off the bugs, and that it is therefore unsafe to put the stem of these blossoms in the mouth, as lip soreness is liable to ensue, if nothing more serious.—Chicago Herald.

In the Line of Duty.

A lady who had been abroad was enumerating the pursuits of each day. Among other things she mentioned letters to her husband.

"You don't mean to say that you write to your husband every day when you are absent?" inquired her friend.

"Why, certainly I do," she answered with much energy. "I consider it as sacred a duty as it is to—eat!"—Detroit Free Press.

James Robinson Taken to Ravenna.

RAVENNA, O., April 26.—Deputy Warden Cherrington arrived here Tuesday afternoon, having in charge James Robinson, who has been granted a new trial by the circuit court. Robinson barely escaped the rope, but he feels now that his chances are very favorable for a release. His case will be brought up at the May term of court, and in all probability he will be released as was Coughlin.

Base Ballist Not Going to Marry.

BOSTON, April 26.—Tim Keefe denied the report to the effect that he was about to marry Mrs. Helm, a widow, and a sister to Mrs. John Ward. When the New York players returned from California last winter he, Keefe and Herman traveled more or less in Mrs. Helm's company, but Keefe has not seen her since they separated in New York.

The Calumet & Hecla Mine Opened.

CALUMET, Mich., April 26.—Yesterday No 1 shaft of the Calumet & Hecla mine, which has been on fire for six months, was reopened, and the indications are that the fire is entirely extinguished, although the damage to the mine cannot be estimated.

EMERY WHITAKER.

Fashion's Fancies.

[Cincinnati Enquirer.]

Pands of white ribbon around the neck with a bow at the side will take the place of collars for summer wear.

Pink will be more worn than usual during the coming season, and pink gowns, with chenille dots, will be a novelty.

The bronze tie is ahead of the black kid for evening wear, and slippers are not considered as fashionable as the Oxford tie.

It is now the women's turn to take to the choker collar. The one worn by the most fashionable women are now quite as high as the highest worn last summer by men.

Silk and taffeta gloves will be exclusively worn by the ladies for dress wear during the coming summer, and mitts, which came in again last season, will be more popular than ever.

The Philadelphia Press predicts that this is to be a "white season"—white dresses, white gloves for evening wear, white fans and white stockings, that are already more fashionable than black ones.

Fashionable spring colors in Paris this year possess some curious names. Green being the favorite tint of the season, there are "morning green," "new-born bud" and "early stalk," three very pale shades, "verdigris" and "serpent," both shot greens.

Signs of the coming fashions indicate that silk will, to a great extent, take the place of cloth and woolen goods, even the lightest, for women's summer wear. The French glaze silks especially will be very popular. Striped silks will be a fashionable novelty.

The spring racing in Kentucky commences at Lexington on May 7th, and continues to the 14th. It is the oldest association in the Southwest, being organized in 1826. The stables are now filled and there are now about 250 horses on the grounds. On that race course will be found the winner of the Kentucky Derby at Louisville, as it is the great starting point for the candidates at Churchill Downs. The stakes are valuable and purses liberal.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MAYSLEICK.

Out of the entire Presbytery made up of such handsome and talented ministers (the good sisters fed them liberally so they would be grateful) only two could be prevailed upon to remain over Sunday—Rev. Mr. Hunkett, of Covington, occupying the pulpit of the Baptist Church, and Rev. Mr. Graybill, that of the Presbyterian. Each had a fine hearing and made good impressions.

SHANNON.

Rev. J. W. Zimmerman, of Dayton, O., will dedicate the new Forman Chapel in the Fleming Oaks on the fifth Sunday in this month.

Rev. Thomas Haulford, of Maysville, will be with the M. E. Church in Sardis on the third Sunday in May.

"Arbor Day" (April 18th) was observed by Mrs. Sue Wright and her school at Shannon. A great variety of trees, forest and evergreen, was planted, and a diamond-shaped pink bed was set out. The trustees must come to the rescue, for every body who planted a tree with a good wire and picket fence.

The remains of Mrs. Jobu Hythe, nee Margaret Duryee, formerly of this vicinity, but for years a resident of Aberdeen, were quietly laid to rest in Shannon cemetery on Wednesday, the 18th inst. Rev. Mr. Fulton, of Aberdeen, of Covington, occupied the pulpit of the Baptist Church, and Rev. Mr. Graybill, that of the Presbyterian. Each had a fine hearing and made good impressions.

Harrison Bros have the finest selection of spring and summer goods that ever was in Helena. Consider the matter before going elsewhere.

Joseph Cooper wants to buy every tobacco bed in Mason County. He says he will fix a price for every body to get a good price for their tobacco this year.

A JEWISH WEDDING.

Marriage of Miss Carrie Davis, of this City, to Mr. Isaac Levi, of Portsmouth, O.

One of the Most Notable Events in Jewish Circles Witnessed in Maysville for Years.

One of the most brilliant events in the Jewish circles of Maysville for years was the marriage last evening of Miss Carrie Davis to Mr. Isaac Levi. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Davis, of Market street, while the groom is a prominent liquor merchant of Portsmouth, O.

The nuptials were celebrated in the parlor of the Central Hotel, which had been arranged for the occasion. A large number of the friends and relatives of the happy couple were present. Messrs. Jacob Bloch, of Cincinnati, Benjamin Harmon, Theodore Schlesinger and F. L. Siebert, of Columbus, O., and Sim Rosenau and Ben Davis, of this city—the latter a brother of the bride—acted as ushers.

At the appointed hour—7:30 o'clock—the bride, accompanied by her father and followed by her mother, who was accompanied by a brother of the groom, crossed over from the Davis residence to the hotel.

Entering the parlors, they were joined by the groom, when the nuptial ceremony was soon solemnized. Rabbi A. M. Bloch, of Portsmouth, and Judge W. P. Coons, of this city, officiated, the one performing the religious ceremony and the other the legal, the celebration closing with a prayer by the Rabbi.

The groom was dressed in the conventional black, while the bride wore a rich white faille francaise, trimmed with point lace, with diamond ornaments—a gift from the groom.

A season of festivity and rejoicing followed the ceremony. The invited guests repaired to the dining rooms of the hotel where a sumptuous repast was served. The menu consisted of every delicacy which could be had at this season of the year. After the supper had been fully discussed, the guests indulged in dancing to the sweet strains of music by the Maysville orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi were the recipients of an usual number of elegant and costly presents. The couple left this morning on the steamer Telegraph for Portsmouth where they will go to housekeeping at once.

Among the guests present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Levi, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Levi, Mr. and Mrs. J. Eisman and Mr. S. Lahold, of Portsmouth, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. J. Silverman and Mr. E. H. Bloch, of Cincinnati; Benjamin Nathan, of Parkersburg, W. Va.; Emanuel Levi, of Zanesville; Edward Loevenstein, of Jackson, Ohio; Abe Meyer and wife and Miss Ida Meyer, of Columbus; Miss Essie Ransheim, of Ripley; and S. Silverman and wife, of Gallipolis, Ohio.

WILLIAMS-DUKE NUPTIALS.

Quietly Celebrated at the Home of the Bride on Front Street.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Poyntz, on Front street, was the scene of the social event of the week on last evening. The occasion was the celebration of the nuptials of Mr. Cadmus B. Williams and Miss Hannah Morton Duke. Cards had been issued some weeks ago announcing the happy event.

The parlors of the Poyntz residence had been tastefully decorated for the occasion. The ceremony was witnessed by a few of the relatives and intimate friends of the couple. Rev. D. D. Chapin, pastor of the Church of the Nativity, officiated.

The bride, who is one of Maysville's loveliest daughters, was attired in a rich silk gown, en train. She is a daughter of the late John M. Duke, and is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Poyntz. The groom is the present Auditor of the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad Company, and has been making his home in this city for the past year or so. The couple have a host of warm friends, who wish them bon voyage on the matrimonial sea.

The attendants were Mr. J. B. Dugan, of Louisville, and Miss Lizzie Poyntz, of this city. At the conclusion of the ceremony a sumptuous repast was served.

The newly-wedded couple left this morning for Lexington, from which place they will leave for the South on their bridal trip. On their return they will make their home at the Central Hotel.

Flemingsburg Merchants Fighting Outsiders.

The Fleming True Blue Democrat says: "There was considerable commotion court day among those who visit Flemingsburg to sell and take orders for goods. The city council at recent meeting changed the rate of taxation, making $3 the lowest and $25 the highest for one day. Hopper & Murphy, who had a sample room at the Holiday House, were taxed $10. They thought the tax high but paid it. Dave Hechlinger was taxed $15. Dave is well known here and is familiar to every one, a liberal and go ahead hustler. He had been paying heretofore $5 a day, or an average $60 a year. Dave revolted against the increase, refused to pay the tax and was arrested. Mayor West fined him $30 double the amount of the tax, and Dave took an appeal. Dave says he feels almost at home in Flemingsburg and is willing to pay the old tax of $5 but regards the raise as too steep. The case will be heard at the next term of circuit court."

JAMES W. FITZGERALD received flattering offers from Michigan parties this week for Alcindro and Enterprise, but promptly declined both of them.

MISS MAGGIE FITZGERALD has accepted a position with J. W. Sparks & Bro., dry goods merchants of Market street, where she will be pleased to wait on her friends.

JOHN A. CAMPBELL and wife, by Commissioner, have conveyed to the Mason County Building and Saving Association, a house and lot on the south side of the continuation of Grant street for $600. In consideration of $650, the association has conveyed the same property to Joseph F. Thompson and wife.

MRS. ELIZA MORGAN died at 7 o'clock this morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lottie Burrows, on Front street. She was in the sixty-fourth year of her age and had been ill some time. Funeral services to-morrow (Friday) afternoon at half-past 2 o'clock at the residence. Friends of the family invited.

JUDGE J. M. NESBITT died at Owingsville a few days ago at the age of sixty-nine years. He was one of the most prominent and honored citizens of Bath County. He leaves several children, among whom are Mrs. Samuel M. Hall and Mr. T. Y. Nesbitt, of this city, and Hon. J. J. Nesbitt, Representative from Bath.

The Portsmouth Tribune says: "The tracklayers on the Southside railroad had reached the Music property, a mile and a half above Springville, Tuesday morning, and are expected to arrive at Springville to-day. A large force is at work, and they are pushing things. It is now likely that the gap will be closed by Saturday evening."

CARDS have been received announcing the approaching marriage of Will S. Cady, formerly of this city, but now a typo in the office of the Public Printer at Frankfort. His bride to be is Miss Terese O'Donnell, of that city. The wedding will take place on the 8th of May, at the home of Miss O'Donnell's mother, Mrs. James O'Donnell.

OWENS & BARKLEY have just received several sizes of lawn mowers. Will be sold at lower prices than ever before. THE BOULANGER EPISODE

CREATES BUT LITTLE EXCITEMENT IN RUSSIA.

Prospects of War Not as Good Now as Four Months Ago—Russia Sympathizes With Boulanger—Why Americans Want War. Row Among the Liberals—Notes.

LONDON, April 26.—Advices from St. Petersburg do not indicate that the Boulanger episode has created much excitement in Russia, and there is no evidence that French affairs are deemed of such importance there as the Gallic press and people like to think. Alexander appears to be convinced that the friendship of Germany is, for the present, of more value to his empire than that of France, for by the quiescence of the former power, pending his intrigues in Roumania, he can gain an imperial step forward in his designs to disturb the Bulgarian princeling on his precarious throne.

Of course every petty element in the south-east of Europe is attributed to Russian agents who are popularly supposed to have unlimited quantities of Russian gold to lavish for political purposes, even when that useful article is lacking their master's treasury. War does not seem so imminent now as it did four months ago, and though there is no doubt that Austria is seriously alarmed at the evidence of Russian activity in Roumania, she must remain satisfied with the assurances of Bismarck that Russia will not be permitted to go too far in that direction.

It is undoubtedly true that many letters and messages have been received by Gen. Boulanger from Russia, professing sympathy for his grievances and congratulating him on the confidence evinced by the electors of the north, but those of them that were not anonymous bore no prominent names, and it does not appear, in spite of the modest assertions of Boulanger's friends, that the ex-general has taken the place in the Russian heart formerly occupied by the Chevalier Skabelfoff.

The only similarity between the two is the professed and consistent hatred of Germany, characteristic of both the living and the dead soldier. If the former seems at present to have enlarged field on which to display his talents, he is also opposed by enemies, who do not scruple to make any charges against him, however ludicrous and incredible.

The unconscious humorist in the Voltaire who discovered that a clique of American capitalists is urging Boulanger on that a war may enable them to sell unlimited cargoes of provisions to the combatants, including the ostracized and detested American pig, would hardly be worth noticing were it not that the Voltaire is M. Floquet's organ, which numbers three deputies among its editorial contributors. This and other stories are going the rounds, and will probably continue with fresh additions until Boulangerism is decided either in dictatorship or nullity.

Dr. Mackenzie and Mr. Lowe.
LONDON, April 26.—In his letter to Mr. Lowe, Dr. Mackenzie says: "When, contrary to your expectation, the royal patient became emperor, and I arrived at Charlottenburg, you thought it would suit you better to be friendly with me, and wrote to me offering congratulations and placing your services at my disposal. I declined to receive you and refused to yield to your flattery then, as I decline to yield to your threats now. My friends in England and Germany have written me regretting that the Times should be so unworthily represented here. I agree with them."

Mr. Lowe, in another letter reviewing the statements of Dr. Mackenzie, says: "The only occasion in which the Times was unworthily represented in Berlin was at the beginning of November last when I confidently reported the telegrams you sent me from San Remo, and which were in conflict with the bulletin you signed November 11."

Dr. Mackenzie, in answer to this, writes: "You were aware that Mr. Fischer Long attacked me privately and in the Cologne Gazette, and ought to have waited to hear the other side."

How is the Liberal Camp.
LONDON, April 26.—A most unfortunate row has occurred in the Liberal camp over the coming Mid-Lanarkshire election. The Scotch Home Rulers accuse Mr. Farnell and his immediate followers of trying to defeat their candidate, Mr. Keir Hardie, and things are just now at sixes and sevens, a condition at which the opponents to the Scotch candidate rejoice. The result of the quarrel will probably be the election of a Unionist to that seat, as Mr. Schnadhorst, the famous Liberal campaign manager, has thus far been unable to reconcile the warring factions, although his best efforts have been exerted in the task. The election occurs Friday, and all efforts are being made to strengthen up matters before then.

ILLICIT DISTILLERIES IN ALABAMA.
Ten of Them Destroyed and Nine Moonshiners Captured.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 26.—Deputy United States Marshal Colquitt returned last night in company with Deputy Marshals Clay and Mitchell and Deputy Marshals Fulgham, Morton and Betts from a two weeks' raid in Franklin, Lauderdale and Colbert counties, which has been most profitable of results in the number and capacity of distilleries destroyed of any which have yet been made in the district. Ten distilleries in all were captured and destroyed and nine men captured.

The largest distillery yet found by Marshal Colquitt during his four years of service was discovered in a natural rock cave in the almost inaccessible mountains of Franklin county. It was entirely underground, the water being furnished by a spring which gushed from the rocks. The still had a capacity of 100 gallons. Several conflicts were had with the moonshiners, in one of which Collector Clay was shot in the face. He brought nine illicit distilleries into jail with him.

Brass Price List Revised.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 26.—The executive committee of the National Brass Manufacturers' and Brass Jobbers' associations met in joint session here and revised the price list. The secretary refused to make public the changes, but said the prices were made uniform, and that some of the lower grades of goods had been slightly advanced.

New York, April 26.—Bishop Ryan, of Buffalo, who has just returned from Rome, was banqueted last night by the faculty and 300 students of de la Salle Institute. Among others present were Bishop Burke, of Cheyenne, and Mgr. Quigley, of South Carolina.

TRAGEDY IN AN ASYLUM.
A Madman Cuts the Throat of His Keeper and Injures Another Man.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 26.—Clarence Neff, attendant at the Anchorage asylum, had a horrible experience, calculated to make him gray headed if he recovers enough to think about it. This morning while he was preparing a meal, John Fry, a powerful lunatic, stood by, waiting with all a madman's cunning for a chance to plunge the knife which he had concealed about his person into the attendant's heart. His opportunity soon came, and as Neff turned to go to another room, he found himself bound in the vice-like grasp of the madman, who sawed the knife across his throat, inflicting a terrible wound.

He made a heroic struggle for life, rolling over and over on the floor, but so weakened by loss of blood that he was on the point of losing consciousness when another attendant came to his rescue. This one was also cut severely by the murderous knife, and both attendants would have been killed had not their cries attracted the attention of others, who ran to the scene to find Neff unconscious and bleeding, while the madman stood over him with the bloody knife, howling like a wild beast. After a struggle he was overpowered.

Neff is in a critical condition. During the struggle several other inmates stood by calmly, without making an effort to aid either party.

Governor Hill Not a Candidate.
BOSTON, April 26.—A dispatch to the Herald from Washington says: "Col. J. B. Tomlinson, editor of the Omaha Democrat, has kept Governor David B. Hill's name at the head of his editorial column for some time as his candidate for the presidency. Last night, having just returned from Albany where he had a long conference with Governor Hill, he telegraphed his managing editor to take Hill's name down. The governor told him, he says, that he was not only not a candidate, but would willingly head the New York delegation for Cleveland to St. Louis."
